The Honker

*Published by the Medicine Lake High School
Senior Journalists
1953-54*

Foreword

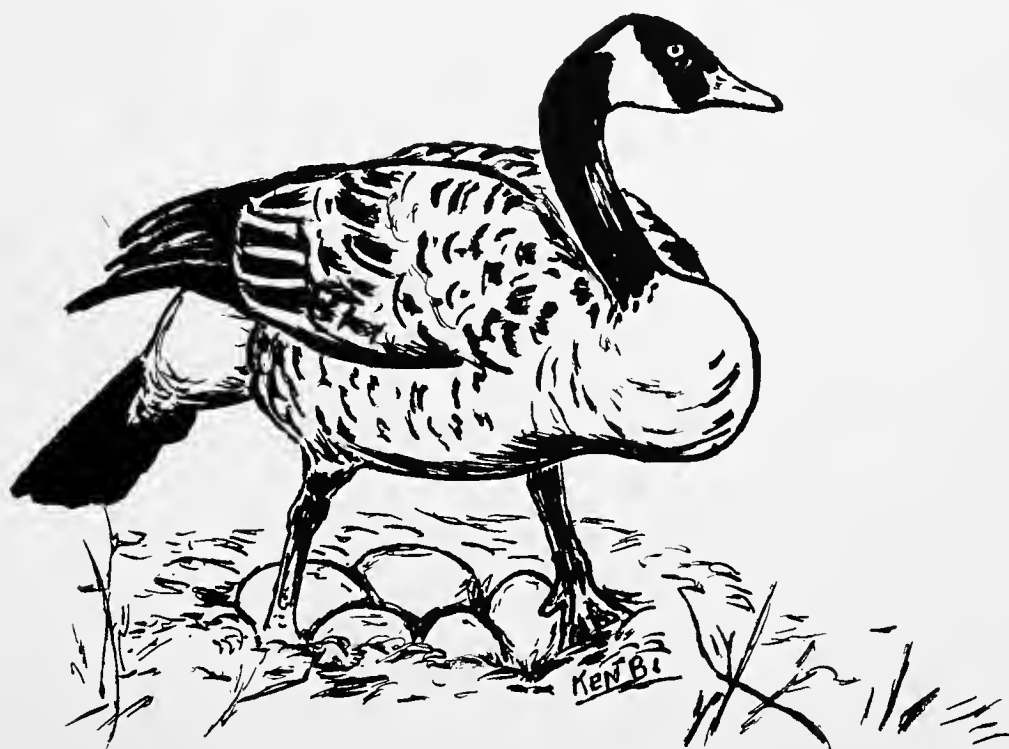

Represented within the covers of the 1954 HONKER, are the blood, sweat, and hours of diligent labor by the senior journalists of Medicine Lake High school and their advisor, Mr. Irving Andreasen.

They have striven to present all the events and interesting highlights of the 1953 -1954 high school year.

Deepest appreciation is given to all who contributed in any way to making it complete. Special thanks go to Mr. Elmo Adams of the Medicine Lake Wildlife refuge for lending pictures for the art work and to Mr. Lloyd Markell and the county superintendent's office for providing a list of former teachers.

May you enjoy this book and the pleasant memories that it brings back.

Honkers

GENEVIEVE CHARETTE'S long, dark tresses were one of her outstanding features. Always an attractive, likeable girl, "Sissy" made a lot of friends during her school days. Active in FHA, "Sis" belonged four years, held office, and attended the state convention at Havre when she was a junior. She also enjoyed singing in the chorus and acting in class plays.

Friendly, jovial BETTY LOU GREFE, was one of the top students of the Class of '54. Born and raised in Wanso, this future nurse came to Lake and attended all four years of high school. While here she belonged to chorus three years, FHA two years, and during her senior year, served as office secretary.

BOB ANDRING, a native of Medicine Lake, was the unfortunate soul who led the alphabet, thus was always the first one to be called upon by all the teachers. In spite of this, Bob made it through school in fine shape, seemingly specializing in FFA, where he held the office of vice-president during his senior year. Also he sang tenor in the chorus for one year.

Class Of '54

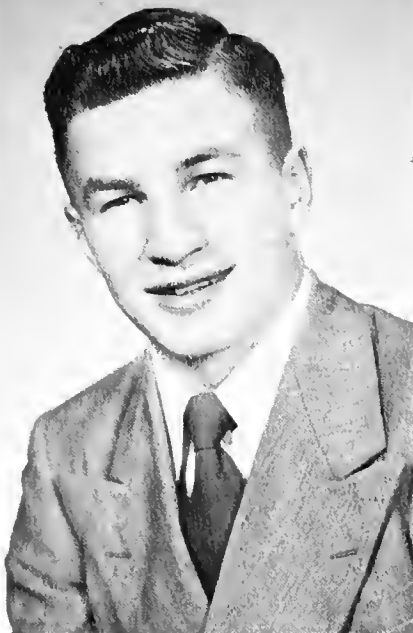

Activity-minded MARLENE JACOBSEN was carnival queen her junior year. She played a sax in band four years, was FHA vice-president and historian, class vice-president and secretary, and had the leading role in the class play. Probably the most athletic senior girl, she led Lakers in cheers for the A team when a sophomore.

June Jensen, valedictorian of the Class of '54, was a studious, attractive, blonde. As a senior she served as an efficient, cheerful office secretary. She was a chorus member for three years and belonged to FHA four years. Her senior year marked the twelfth year she went to Lake. June acted in class plays and showed artistic ability in preparing prom and class play scenery.

Most famous for his talented left hand, KENNETH BARSNESS was responsible for all the art work in this book and the BDA WAUKA. Besides this his main interest was sports, and he was picked as one of the ten top players at the basketball tourney in Plentywood during his senior year. This dark, good-looking basketball captain would like to capitalize on his drawing ability by taking drafting.

"Big Brekke" certainly was a fitting title for 6'2", 185 lb. GARY BREKKE. Gary sang in chorus for two years, but aside from this he enjoyed athletics. A sharp crew-cut was always his trademark when he played football, basketball, and ran the mile in track. This happy-go-lucky gent plans to attend college.

RUTH ANN CHRISTENSEN, neat, pretty, musical senior, was carnival queen as a sophomore. A saxophone player in the band, a member of the chorus, and a piano player for her own enjoyment, Ruth Ann considered a career in music. She was vice-president of the senior class and president of the freshman class.

Small, quiet DOLORES HAASE, who hailed from Homestead, was an honor student and tooted her trombone in band for two years. Among her favorite subjects were German and Typing II at which she excelled. This friendly, dependable girl was always willing to help out in any of the senior's activities.

Lean and lanky, 6'3" JIM HATFIELD was distinguished as the tallest member of the senior class. Also known for his red Chevy pickup, many of Jimmy's happiest hours were whiled away at the wheel of this vehicle. He spent four years in FFA and plans to continue his mechanical education at Dunwoody Mechanical School, Minneapolis.

Editor-in-chief of the BDA WAUKA was dapper VANCE PETERSEN. He was the junior class President and treasurer of the seniors' scanty funds. Playing sax in the band for four years, this neat, well-dressed young man was also advertising manager of the HONKER.

Dark-haired, quiet VIOLA LIZOTTE spent her freshman, sophomore, and senior years at Lake, but went to Sidney when a sophomore. She enjoyed art work, and energetically painted senior class play scenery. A future teacher, she also belonged to FHA and chorus.

Salutatorian, KAY LUND, one of the outstanding seniors, participated in a great many activities. In the band she played both clarinet and trombone, and in chorus sang soprano besides being accompanist. An FHA member, Kay attended the state convention as a freshman and also attended Girls' State. Offices held by this charming blonde from Reserve were sophomore class president and senior secretary.

Class Of '54

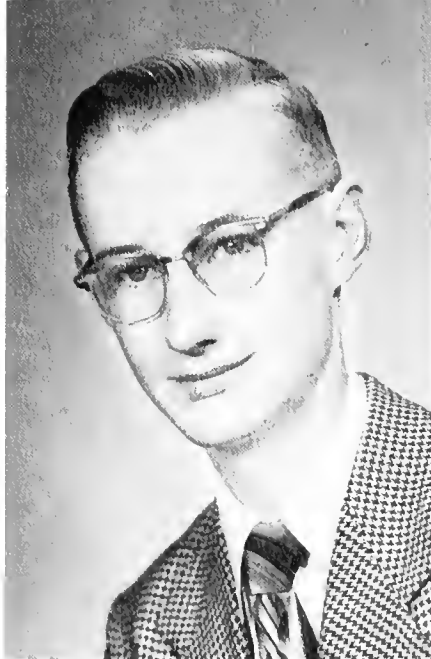

Husky, broad-shouldered DWAIN JOHNSON was a great asset to the journalism class as well as to the athletic teams. Although he found it easy to sleep in class, he was never caught napping in the fields of basketball, football and baseball. He controlled funds for the FFA for two years and showed promise as a future farmer.

GAYLE PETERSEN, a tall blonde Lake girl, played cornet in band for three years. As a sophomore she was a cheerleader and as a senior she was in the class play. Circulation manager for the BDA WAUKA and photographer for the annual, she also put in many hours on the alumni roster.

Mechanical genius, LELAND JENSEN, was the proud owner of a '41 Chevy that changed colors every now and then. Tootling on the clarinet and singing bass in chorus were additional interest of this blond young man who answered to the names of "Sonny" or "Doc." At graduation he hailed from Lake, but previously he had lived in California and Reserve.

Trombone artist GERALD LYN-GAAS played solos for many events and led his section in band. Besides this he backboned the bass section in chorus. Science and math were Jerry's favorites, and he planned to continue in that line. He acquired a reputation as a dry humorist, and by the time he was a senior had a large vocabulary of mile-long words, which he tossed around in an accomplished manner.

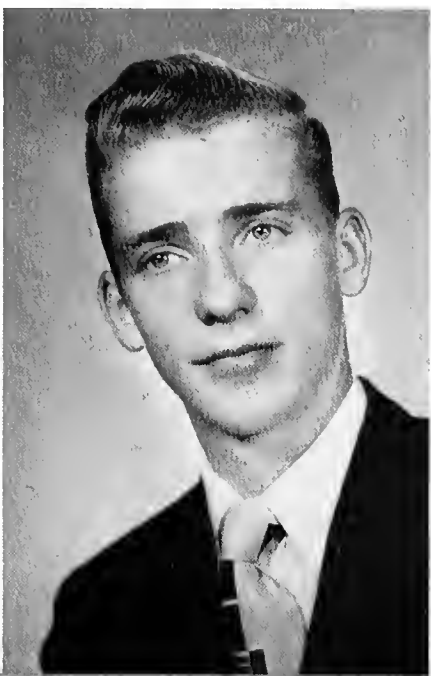

Class Of '54

Senior candidate for carnival queen was PEARL LEE, blonde Norse-woman from Antelope. An enthusiastic sports fan, she was A team cheerleader during her sophomore year. In her last year at Lake, humorous, likeable Pearl was selected to go to the FHA convention. Working on the BDA WAUKA and HONKER took up many hours of her senior year.

Witty DENNIS LARSEN, a Dagmar Dane, added much to classroom humor. He could always be counted upon to work hard on class activities and many times burned midnight oil in an attempt to get the BDA WAUKA out on time. "Dane" also took and developed many HONKER pictures. He belonged to FFA for four years.

Dagmarite LEROY LODAHL had the reddest hair in the class and was easily recognized by his fondness for western attire, including cowboy boots. He played a part in the class play, but his main interest was zipping around in his cream-colored '51 Mercury. Many classmates will long remember his droll remarks.

BILL STRODE, always the class clown, came to Lake from Kansas City as a freshman. Upon arrival he plunged right into the school's activities, taking two years of chorus, one year of band, and four years of FFA. In this organization he held the office of parliamentarian for two years. As a senior he was a member of the HONKER and BDA WAUKA staffs.

PATTY SMITH won fame as the first freshman ever to become Medicine Lake's carnival queen. In addition to this, she was cornet player for five years and a valuable asset to the chorus, singing solos for several affairs. Pat also acted in the class play, was junior class secretary, and an able HONKER and BDA WAUKA staff member.

Capable, dependable KARLA STRAND from Reserve enjoyed music. She supplied afterbeats for the band with her mellophone and sang soprano in chorus. Belonging to FHA all four years, Karla was always ready and willing to help anyone she could. Dramatics interested her, and as a junior she helped the class of '53 give their play.

Class Of '54

The senior with the 'stache was JACK STEPHENS, who played "Paw Belsnickle" in the class play. Sports were his main interest and he was co-captain of the football team in '53. He also participated in baseball, track, and basketball. Because of his acute dislike of walking, Jack and his Dad's auto were an inseparable duo throughout high school.

The first senior girl to wear a diamond was DONNA TYLER, the blond Tyler twin. FHA prexy in her sophomore year, she attended the state convention in Great Falls. Donna blended her voice with the sopranos in chorus and made many trips from her home west of Homestead to MLHS to participate in the activities of her class.

Holding the position of senior class president and FFA president for two years was WAYNE SMITH. "Scratch" was well-known throughout the country for his wonderful singing voice. He gave many solo performances, and in his junior year he sang in the men's quartet. For four years he belonged to chorus and FFA, his two major interests.

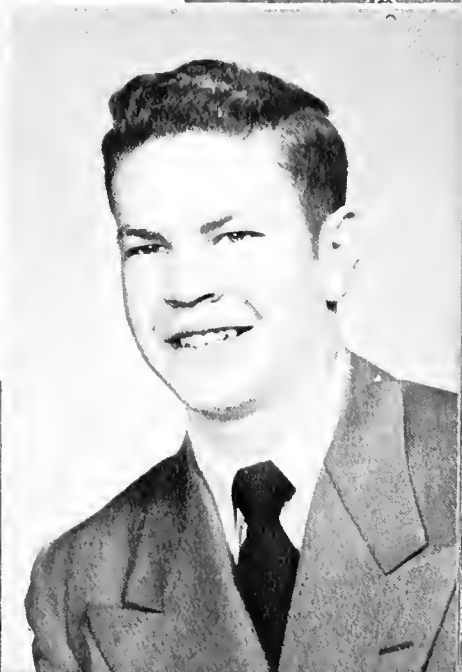

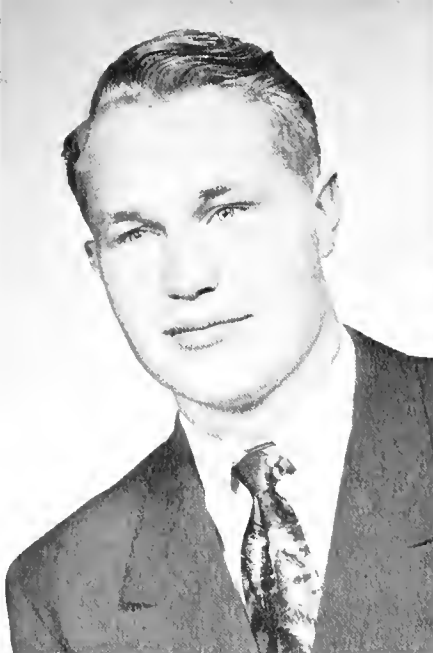

Handsome, husky Melvin C. Tronson Jr. received his diploma with a major in sports and a minor in practical joking. "Junior", co-captain of the football team, started in every sport offered at Lake, was a Class C all-stater as a senior, and earned 13 letters. He acted in the class play, belonged to and held office in FFA, and planned to make farming his career after serving Uncle Sam.

Brunette beauty Yvonne Tyler won renown as a real trouper when in an emergency. On very short notice she took a part in "Hillbilly Weddin'" and gave a fine performance as "Lucy Maxwell." "Vonnice" held the offices of songleader and treasurer in FFA and belonged to chorus. This neat, well-dressed girl enjoyed dancing.

Honker editor, JOAN MADSEN, loved a witty remark, a good poem, and any athletic contest that Lake competed in. When a sophomore this dark-haired gal won a trip to the interscholastic meet at Missoula, and the 1953 Christmas concert featured her as narrator. She played a large part in the senior play, wrote many features for the BDA WAUKA in her breezy style, and was sophomore vice-president. Her trumpet sounded in band for three years.

RUDALE NELSON, a tall Home-steadite with a hearty laugh, was a real crazy dancer. He belonged to band and threw in his lot with the basses in chorus. Real farmer material, "Rudy" belonged to FFA for four years and loved every minute of it. He was always ready to join in a class activity and added much to the class play.

Curly-haired GARY ROBINSON had the best attendance record of all the class, although it was not because of his love for his studies. Instead he wished to be on hand for all the extra-curricular activities. The main attraction was sports, although he played in band, was in FFA and acted in the class play. He was another senior member of the near-state-champion basketball and football teams.

By the shores of the Bda Wauka
Within the walls of dusty red
Are the 31 fine scholars
Who now must earn their bread.
Close behind have been the teachers
Driving, driving through the years
'Till this mighty class of seniors
Face the future without fears.

Carnival

Lake's annual carnival is the biggest school event of the fall term and is the greatest source of revenue for the activity fund. As usual the carnival queen race was a tension filled, exciting race from the moment it began until Queen Ann, sophomore, was crowned at midnight, October 17. Her loyal and lovely princesses were Pearl Lee, senior, Shirley Tronson, junior, and Betty Lou Nielson, freshman. Other features of the gala affair were the variety show, tiny tot show, and many concessions.

As these pictures show, this is an undertaking which requires the time, work and co-operation of everyone in school, grade and high school students and teachers.

These boys kept busy during the year with a turkey raffle last fall and the spring of the year found them busily farming their plot of ground. Big event of the year is always the state convention at Bozeman which was attended by ten boys and their advisor, Mr. Weber. In addition to this, a group also attended the district convention at Baker.

School Assemblies

This past school year has been spiced with the appearance of a variety of performers who have helped break the monotony of many a schoolday. Great enthusiasm was always displayed by students, particularly when an assembly could be extended into class periods by an encore. However, when the programs were in the fourth or eighth periods, hunger and homesickness discouraged anything but faint applause.

In a formal ceremony held one bright September day, 26 freshmen were initiated in the traditions of Lake high. Throughout the day they subject to torment from the sophomores, but at night they were welcomed into the fold at the annual freshman initiation party.

Out of seven season games Lake lost only one, this in the battle for the divisional crown with Ekalaka.

Basketball

Enjoying one of the most successful seasons in the history of Lake high, the basketball team brought glory to the school by copping third place in the state tourney at Livingston.

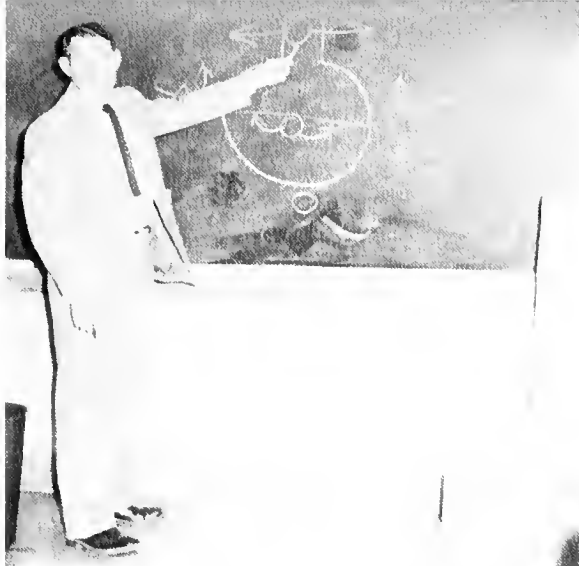

Only four losses marred the season's record and they compiled 23 victories.

Red---white---dynamite---

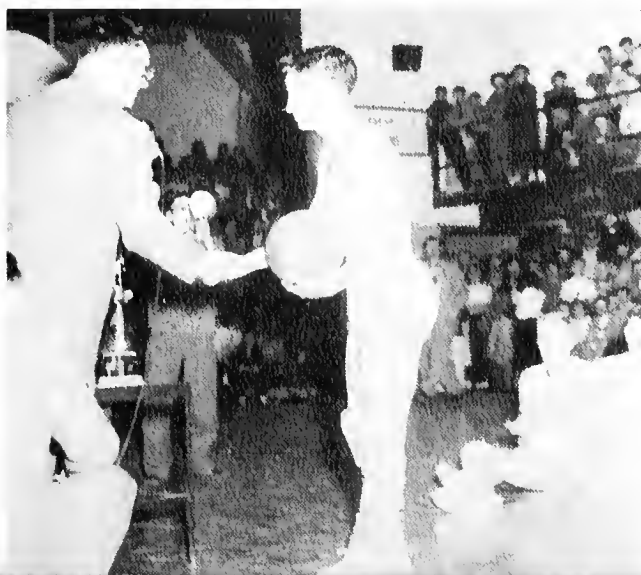

First stop on their upward climb was the district tourney at Plentywood where they breezed to the championship with wins over Westby and Opheim.

But greater laurels were in store at Glasgow as the Lake aggregation brought home the divisional first place trophy. The Honkers came back from Livingston with the third place state Class C title and many happy memories of a triumphant season.

Grade Activities

Grade and junior high students sponsored many programs which were enjoyed by the public. Some of these were the Tiny Tot show at the carnival, the annual Christmas program, and an operetta this spring. Also they contributed a number to the Fireman's Benefit and many of the youngsters took an active part in the highly successful beginners' band.

Dinner, Banquet, and Prom

With the coming of spring, began the usual whirl of activities for Lake students. As usual, the juniors and seniors were the center of most of the excitement.

May 2, parents of the seniors honored their offspring and the faculty with a delicious dinner at the Lake gym. Immediately after this, juniors began decorating for the Prom. They chose a western theme and by the time the Banquet and Prom, biggest social events of the year, rolled around, the gym had its annual festive "spring" appearance.

Calendar

When the fateful day of September 8, 1953, rolled around 240 scrubbed and shining (?) faces enrolled at the Medicine Lake school. Included in this figure were 100 high school and 140 elementary pupils.

Seniors received their class rings September 15. (Although some of these rings didn't stay with the seniors very long--somehow they managed to lose them!) Everyone was busy writing complimentary (and otherwise) ditties in the 1952-53 annuals which arrived on that day.

Football season opened September 18 with the Honkers beating Froid.

The first BDA WAUKA was published September 24. "Better late than never." Vance Petersen led the BDA WAUKA staff and Joan Madsen was editor of the HONKER. Vance and Joan had GREAT affection for their respective jobs and stated, "The HONKER and BDA WAUKA are our first and only loves."

Election of class officers was held September 30. Wayne Smith, Don Omundson, Ann Michels, and Sheldon Andersen headed the senior, junior, sophomore, and freshmen classes respectively.

Sophomores initiated the Freshmen October 7. The freshmen's lovely outfits consisted of sheets, cornstarch and egg make-up, bolt necklaces, shoe-box shoes, and (phew) an abundance of perfume. Poor freshmen! You'll get your revenge next year.

After 10 days of selling carnival queen tickets, students turned in their money for their respective candidates. Ann Michels, sophomore candidate, came out on top to receive the title of "1953 Carnival Queen". Second place winner was Pearl Lee, senior, while Betty Lou Nielsen, freshman, and Shirley Tronson, Junior, received third and fourth positions.

The seniors had to wash their faces again, for on September 20 Artice Studios from Williston, North Dakota, arrived to take senior portraits. Incidentally, the camera did NOT break.

Teachers reluctantly parted with their pupils October 29 and 30 when they attended a teacher's convention in Glasgow. Although it almost broke everyone's heart not to go to school for two whole days, all managed to survive.

"Hillbilly Weddin'" was chosen as the senior class play. Practice started November 3, and the play was presented December 10. Hillbilly dress and a-r-f-u-l

The band and chorus made their first public appearance when they presented a concert at the Dagmar Parish Hall, November 6, for a "Family Night".

Freshmen held their return party for the high school on November 12.

Honkers wound up the football season November 14, with a loss to Ekalaka. Basketball practice started two days later, on November 16.

The FFA, under the supervision of Mr. Robert Weber, sponsored a turkey raffle on November 19. Said turkeys came in very handy during Thanksgiving vacation, which started November 26, and ended November 30.

Basketball season opened November 28 with Medicine Lake journeying to Plentywood for the opening game. Lake emerged victorious, 53-41!

The chorus and band gave a Christmas Concert December 17. It centered around the Christmas story, and tableaux added to the performance. Joan Madsen was the narrator.

Not to be outdone by the high school, the grades presented "Trouble in Toyland" on December 21.

December 23 marked the last day of school before Christmas vacation. The FHA held a high school party in the afternoon. All the little kiddies received a bag of candy from Santy Claus.

After consuming large amounts of food during vacation, students waddled back to school January 4.

The Lake firehall burned down Sunday, January 10, causing extensive damage.

Semester tests were given January 21 and 22. At times like that, it was nice to have a B average,----- providing the teachers decided to give exemptions!

What an efficient looking annual staff!

A movie entitled "The Hasty Heart" highlighted the junior class party, January 25.

Medicine Lake took first place in the tournament held at Plentywood, February 19-20. Ophiem won second place which entitled both Lake and Ophiem to play in the tournament two weeks later at Glasgow.

The community of Medicine Lake put on a Home Talent Show February 25-26 to raise funds for a new firetruck. The cast of 75 played to a full house both nights, and the total show netted $1,084. High school students also took part in the show.

The Honkers won another championship trophy when they captured first place at the Glasgow tournament March 4-6.

March 11 was indeed a memorable occasion for the journalists as the BDA WAUKA arrived 11 hours ahead of the scheduled deadline!!!

Leland Stringer copped top honors at an FFA speech contest March 16. Donald Crohn received second place and third place was won by Harold Michels.

A group of FFA boys took part in a convention at Baker, March 26 and 27. Richard Smith tied for first place in livestock judging, while the judges team consisting of Gary Brekke, Harold Michels, Leland Jensen, and Richard Smith received a second place rating. Don Crohn went on public speaking.

Marlene Jacobsen, senior; Ellen Jensen, junior; Sharon Nelson, sophomore; Donald Anderson, freshman; and Mrs. Lucy Smith, advisor went to the state FHA convention on March 29 and 30 at Missoula. Ellen was elected to represent district 8 at the national FHA convention in Utah the summer of '54.

Gary Brekke, Richard Smith, Leland Jensen, Jim Hatfield, Vance Petersen, Rudale Nelson, Robert Anderson, Don Crohn, Mr. Robert Weber, and Dwain Johnson attended the state FFA convention in Bozeman April 6 and 7. Numerous reports indicated an exceptionally educational trip!

The chorus toured to Bainville and Froid April 15. Mr. Johnson, chorus director, commented "the piano in Bainville must play sharp!"

A large crowd attended the band and chorus spring concert April 20. Mr. Bruce Johnson directed the chorus of 56 voices, and Mr. Clifford Grubb directed the 42 piece high school band and also the 42 piece beginners band. The coincidence that both bands had the same number of people does NOT mean that Added attraction of a chorus tour.

Adjudicator, John Strohm, performing at the evening concert of the massed chorus festival. they were one and the same band.

For the first time in the history of M. L. H. S. the basketball team played in a state tournament. The Honkers won third place in the tourney, which was at Livingston on March 19-20. The team won three WHOLE trophies in basketball this year, which now rest in peace in the office.

"Mountain Music", an operetta, was given by the junior high April 27. The following night they presented the operetta at a party for the high school.

Six chorus groups participated in the mass chorus festival held April 30 at Medicine Lake. Mr. John Strohm of Minot State Teachers College was the adjudicator, and also director of the massed chorus.

Mothers of the senior class served a dinner for the class, fathers, and faculty Sunday May 2. Since eating was, and still is, a favorite pastime of the seniors, the dinner was enjoyed by all! Besides the girls didn't have to do dishes!

The seniors invaded Regina May 7 and 8 for their long-awaited Sneak Day. Lucky Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grubb went along as chaperones.

A western theme was the decoration of the gym for the Junior-Senior Banquet May 12. Don Omundson, president of the junior class, was the toastmaster.

Two days later suits and formals were again donned on May 14, when the prom occurred. Bill McFarlin provided the music for the gala affair.

May 15 at the unearthly hour of 5:30 A.M. (especially bad for prom-goers), 42 band members left for the Williston Band Festival. Romelle Rasmussen and Genevieve Charette were the twirlers while Bill Strode, drum major, led the band.

Pastor Robert Johnson from Flaxville was the speaker at Baccalureate, May 23. The senior boys wore blue gowns, and the girls wore white ones.

The blessed day of commencement finally arrived on May 26. Dr. C. C. Swain from Minot State Teachers College delivered the commencement address. June Jensen, valedictorian, and Kay Lund, salutatorian, delivered orations!

On the last day of School, May 28, reluctant students turned in their cherished books.

Band members swarmed to Minot for a band festival, May 29.

And so another fine year in the Medicine Lake schools ended.

The beginning stages of the new Medicine Lake grade school.

Rex Oberle, Leo Oblender, and Bill Grothaus wait eagerly to jump into their service trucks!

Yes, there were a lot of things about our school that hadn't changed and we hoped they never would. Some of these were the ability of its students to work together, play together, and MAKE a good time when none was provided for them.

And our teachers, who were our friends, not merely pillars of wisdom to be worshipped from afar. Tho' the members of the faculty changed, their wonderful willingness to join in our activities, (such as hard time parties) never changed, and we hoped this tradition would last as long as the school.

The biggest moment in the life of a high school student. Graduation-always a happy, serious-sad occasion. Happy because we were leaving the books and studies behind, serious because of the responsibilities we must assume, and sad because these were the best years of our lives, and now they were over.
